

You take chicken
soup to your neighbor.
Move forward two spaces.

You complain while taking out the garbage.
Move backward two spaces.

You help your sister clean
her room.
Move forward one space.

You clean your room with a bad attitude.
Move backward three spaces.

You share your dessert
with your little brother.
Move forward three spaces.

You don't want to help your family
rake your neighbor's leaves.
Move backward one space.

You spend time
with the elderly.
Move forward one space.

You complain about having to go to church early to prepare the sacrament.
Move backward two spaces.

You give flowers
to your teacher.
Move forward one space.

You avoid going to mutual
when they have service projects.
Move backward one space.

You give a Book of Mormon to your friend.
Move forward two spaces.

You have a bad attitude
about paying tithing.
Move backward three spaces.

You help take care of your younger siblings while your dad makes dinner.
Move forward one space.

You go to the movies instead of to do baptisms for the dead with your ward.
Move back three spaces.

You offer to weed
your neighbor's flower bed.
Move forward four spaces.

You donate money from your lemonade stand to a friend with cancer.
Move forward three spaces.

START

THIRD HOUR

Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.
2 Cor. 9 : 7